FROM DEATH TO LIFE

Walking Worthy of Our Call Ephesians 4:1-6

A general rule of life is that privilege brings responsibility. If you're blessed with a high-paying job, you're responsible to show up for work. If you're blessed to have a child, you're responsible to be a good parent. How much more is this true for those blessed with eternal salvation?

In the first half of Paul's letter to the Ephesians, he explained what God has done for us in Christ. Now he turns to how we should live because of Christ. Paul moves from our spiritual wealth to our spiritual walk.

In our text, Paul challenges the believers at Ephesus to walk worthy of the calling with which they were called.

Main Thought...

➔ As followers of Christ, we are not redeemed by our works, but we are _____ for how we walk.

1. _____ the gracious call of God (v. 1).

1 Thess. 2:11-12; 1 Pet. 1: 15-16; 2:9

2. _____ the gentle character of Christ (v. 2).

Phil. 1:27; 2:5-8; Col. 3:12-14

3. _____ to guard the unity of the Spirit (v. 3).

Rom. 12:18; 14:19; 16:17; Phil. 2:2-3; Tit. 3:10-11

4. _____ the great beauty of the Church (v. 4-6).

1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 5:25-27

Final Thoughts...

➔ Is your talk more _____ than your walk?

➔ Does your heart need to _____ to the Lord?
