Do you ever feel overwhelmed by the darkness of our times? Moral confusion, spiritual compromise, political chaos, and media corruption seem to rule the day. It has come to a point where we do not know who or what to trust. However, there is One we can always trust.

In the dark days of King Ahaz of Judah, God gave a great promise. He promised the birth of a child named Immanuel, which means "God with us." Immanuel's birth as a child changed everything for the people of Judah and His birth still changes everything for us today.

In our text, God kept His promise and Immanuel was born.
