God's Extreme Grace 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Can people who have committed extreme acts of sin be forgiven and go to heaven? The answer is yes! God's extreme grace is greater than all our sins. It's impossible for anyone to out-sin the grace of God.

No one knew this better than the Apostle Paul. He considered himself the "chief of sinners," but God had forgiven him and called him to the ministry of the Gospel. He had been saved by God's extreme grace.

In our text, Paul expressed his thanks to God for His extreme grace that changed him from a murderer into a missionary.
