Have there been times in your life when doing God's will was not easy? I believe we all have "Gethsemane Moments." These are moments when you choose to either surrender to God or go your own way.

Jesus provides a great example to follow. At Gethsemane, He knew the Father's will would not be easy and prayed for the cup to pass. But His final words were, "Thy will be done."

In our text, Jesus prayed in earnest at the Garden of Gethsemane and surrendered completely to the Father's will.

Main Thought...

→ God's will is not always _____, but it is always _____.

1. There are times when your _____ is real (v. 32-36).

Jn. 12:27-28; Lk. 22:44; 2 Cor. 5:21

2. There are times when your _____ is weak (v. 35-38).

Mk. 8:31-33

3. There are times when your _____ is hard (v. 39-41).

2 Cor. 12:8-9

4. There are times when your _____ is everything (v. 42).

Heb. 9:22b; Jn. 14:6; Acts 4:12

Final Thoughts...

→ Are you struggling with a _____ that will not be easy?

→ Will you surrender _____ to the Father's will?
