CHRISTMAS EDITION

Between the Two Advents Revelation 1:9-20

Today, we find ourselves living between two great advents. At Christmas, we joyfully celebrate the first arrival of Jesus Christ, while at the same time, we eagerly await His second arrival.

Both advents bear the similarities of prophetic prediction, precise fulfillment, and perfect timing (Gal. 4:4a; Rom. 11:25b-26). However, at the first advent Jesus came to be our savior, but at the second advent He comes to be our judge.

In our text, the Apostle John was given a vision of the resurrected and glorified Christ as He prepares for His second advent.

Main Thought...

➔ Between the two advents, Jesus is _____ in our midst.

1. He is in the _____ of His churches (v. 9-13a, 20).

Mt. 28:20b; Heb. 13:5b

2. He _____ as a priest to His people (v. 13b).

Heb. 4:14-16; 7:25

3. He _____ ready for judgement on His enemies (v. 14-16).

Jn. 5:22; Dan. 7:9-10; Rev. 20:12, 15

4. He has a _____ for His servants (v. 17-19).

Lk. 2:10-12; Acts 1:7-11

Final Thoughts...

➔ If Jesus were to come today, are you _____ to meet Him?

➔ Knowing that Jesus is coming soon, are you _____ Him?
