Sooner or later every believer discovers that the walk of faith is no stroll in the park. Our faith is not lived out on a playground but on a battleground, and our enemy is a very capable adversary.

Paul taught his disciples often about spiritual warfare. He exhorted them to be good soldiers of Christ and to stand strong in the Lord and the power of His might (1 Tim. 1:18b; 6:12a; 2 Tim. 2:3b; 4:7a).

In our text, Paul exhorted the Ephesians to stand strong in the Lord and to fight the good fight of faith.
