FROM DEATH TO LIFE

The Unsearchable Riches of Christ

Dr. Bill Wilks

Ephesians 3:1-13

September 13, 2026

Many people spend their whole lives chasing the world's pleasures and treasures. They seek after something to fill the void that lies deep down in their souls. Yet nothing this world offers can truly satisfy.

At the same time, God offers spiritual riches so vast that they are unsearchable and inexhaustible. These riches are not just for a select few but for all who come to Jesus by faith (Eph. 1:3).

In our text, Paul continued to unpack the mystery of the church and to uphold his call to preach of the unsearchable riches of Christ.

Main Thought...

➔ As followers of Jesus, we are compelled by God's grace to proclaim to others the unsearchable _____ of Christ.

1. We _____ for the mission of Christ (v. 1).

Acts 21:13; Rm. 8:18; Phil. 1:12-14

2. We are _____ of the mystery of Christ (v. 2-6).

Mt. 16:17-18; Acts 10:44-45; 1 Pt. 2:9-10

3. We _____ in the ministry of Christ (v. 7).

Gal. 1:15-16; 1 Pet. 4:10

4. We _____ about the message of Christ (v. 8-11).

1 Cor. 9:16; Col. 1:28-29

5. We _____ by the might of Christ (v. 12-13).

Eph. 6:10-11; Phil. 4:13

Final Thoughts...

➔ Is there a void in your life that you've been _____ to fill?

➔ May I offer to you the _____ riches of Christ?
