

Feeling
OVERWHELMED?
Psalms 143

Rest in God's Character

When we are not sure what God is doing,
we can rest in Who He is and know that He is right.

Remember
God's Conduct

Our love for God should be based upon Who He is, not just what He does.

A close-up photograph of a hand reaching upwards, with the fingers spread. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, and the sun is visible behind it, creating a bright, glowing effect. The background is a soft, warm gradient of yellow and orange. The text "Resolve to follow God's Command" is overlaid on the right side of the image in a black, sans-serif font.

Resolve to follow
God's Command

We find our greatest comfort in what He has done for us...
We find our greatest contentment in what we can do for Him.
