

ROMANS

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

IMPARTIAL GOD & PERFECT LAW

ROMANS 2.12-24

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is white and reads: "A moralist is someone who may be successful in keeping their code of ethics, but they will never be successful in keeping God's code." The background shows a row of columns and a stone floor with shadows cast by the columns.

A moralist is someone who may be successful in keeping their code of ethics,
but they will never be successful in keeping God's code.

PURPOSE OF THE LAW

A photograph of a classical building with large columns, partially obscured by a yellow text box. The text is white and reads: "God, in mercy, gave the perfect law to show us, not how we could work to be right, but that no work we could do will make us right." The background shows a row of columns and a stone floor with shadows cast by the columns.

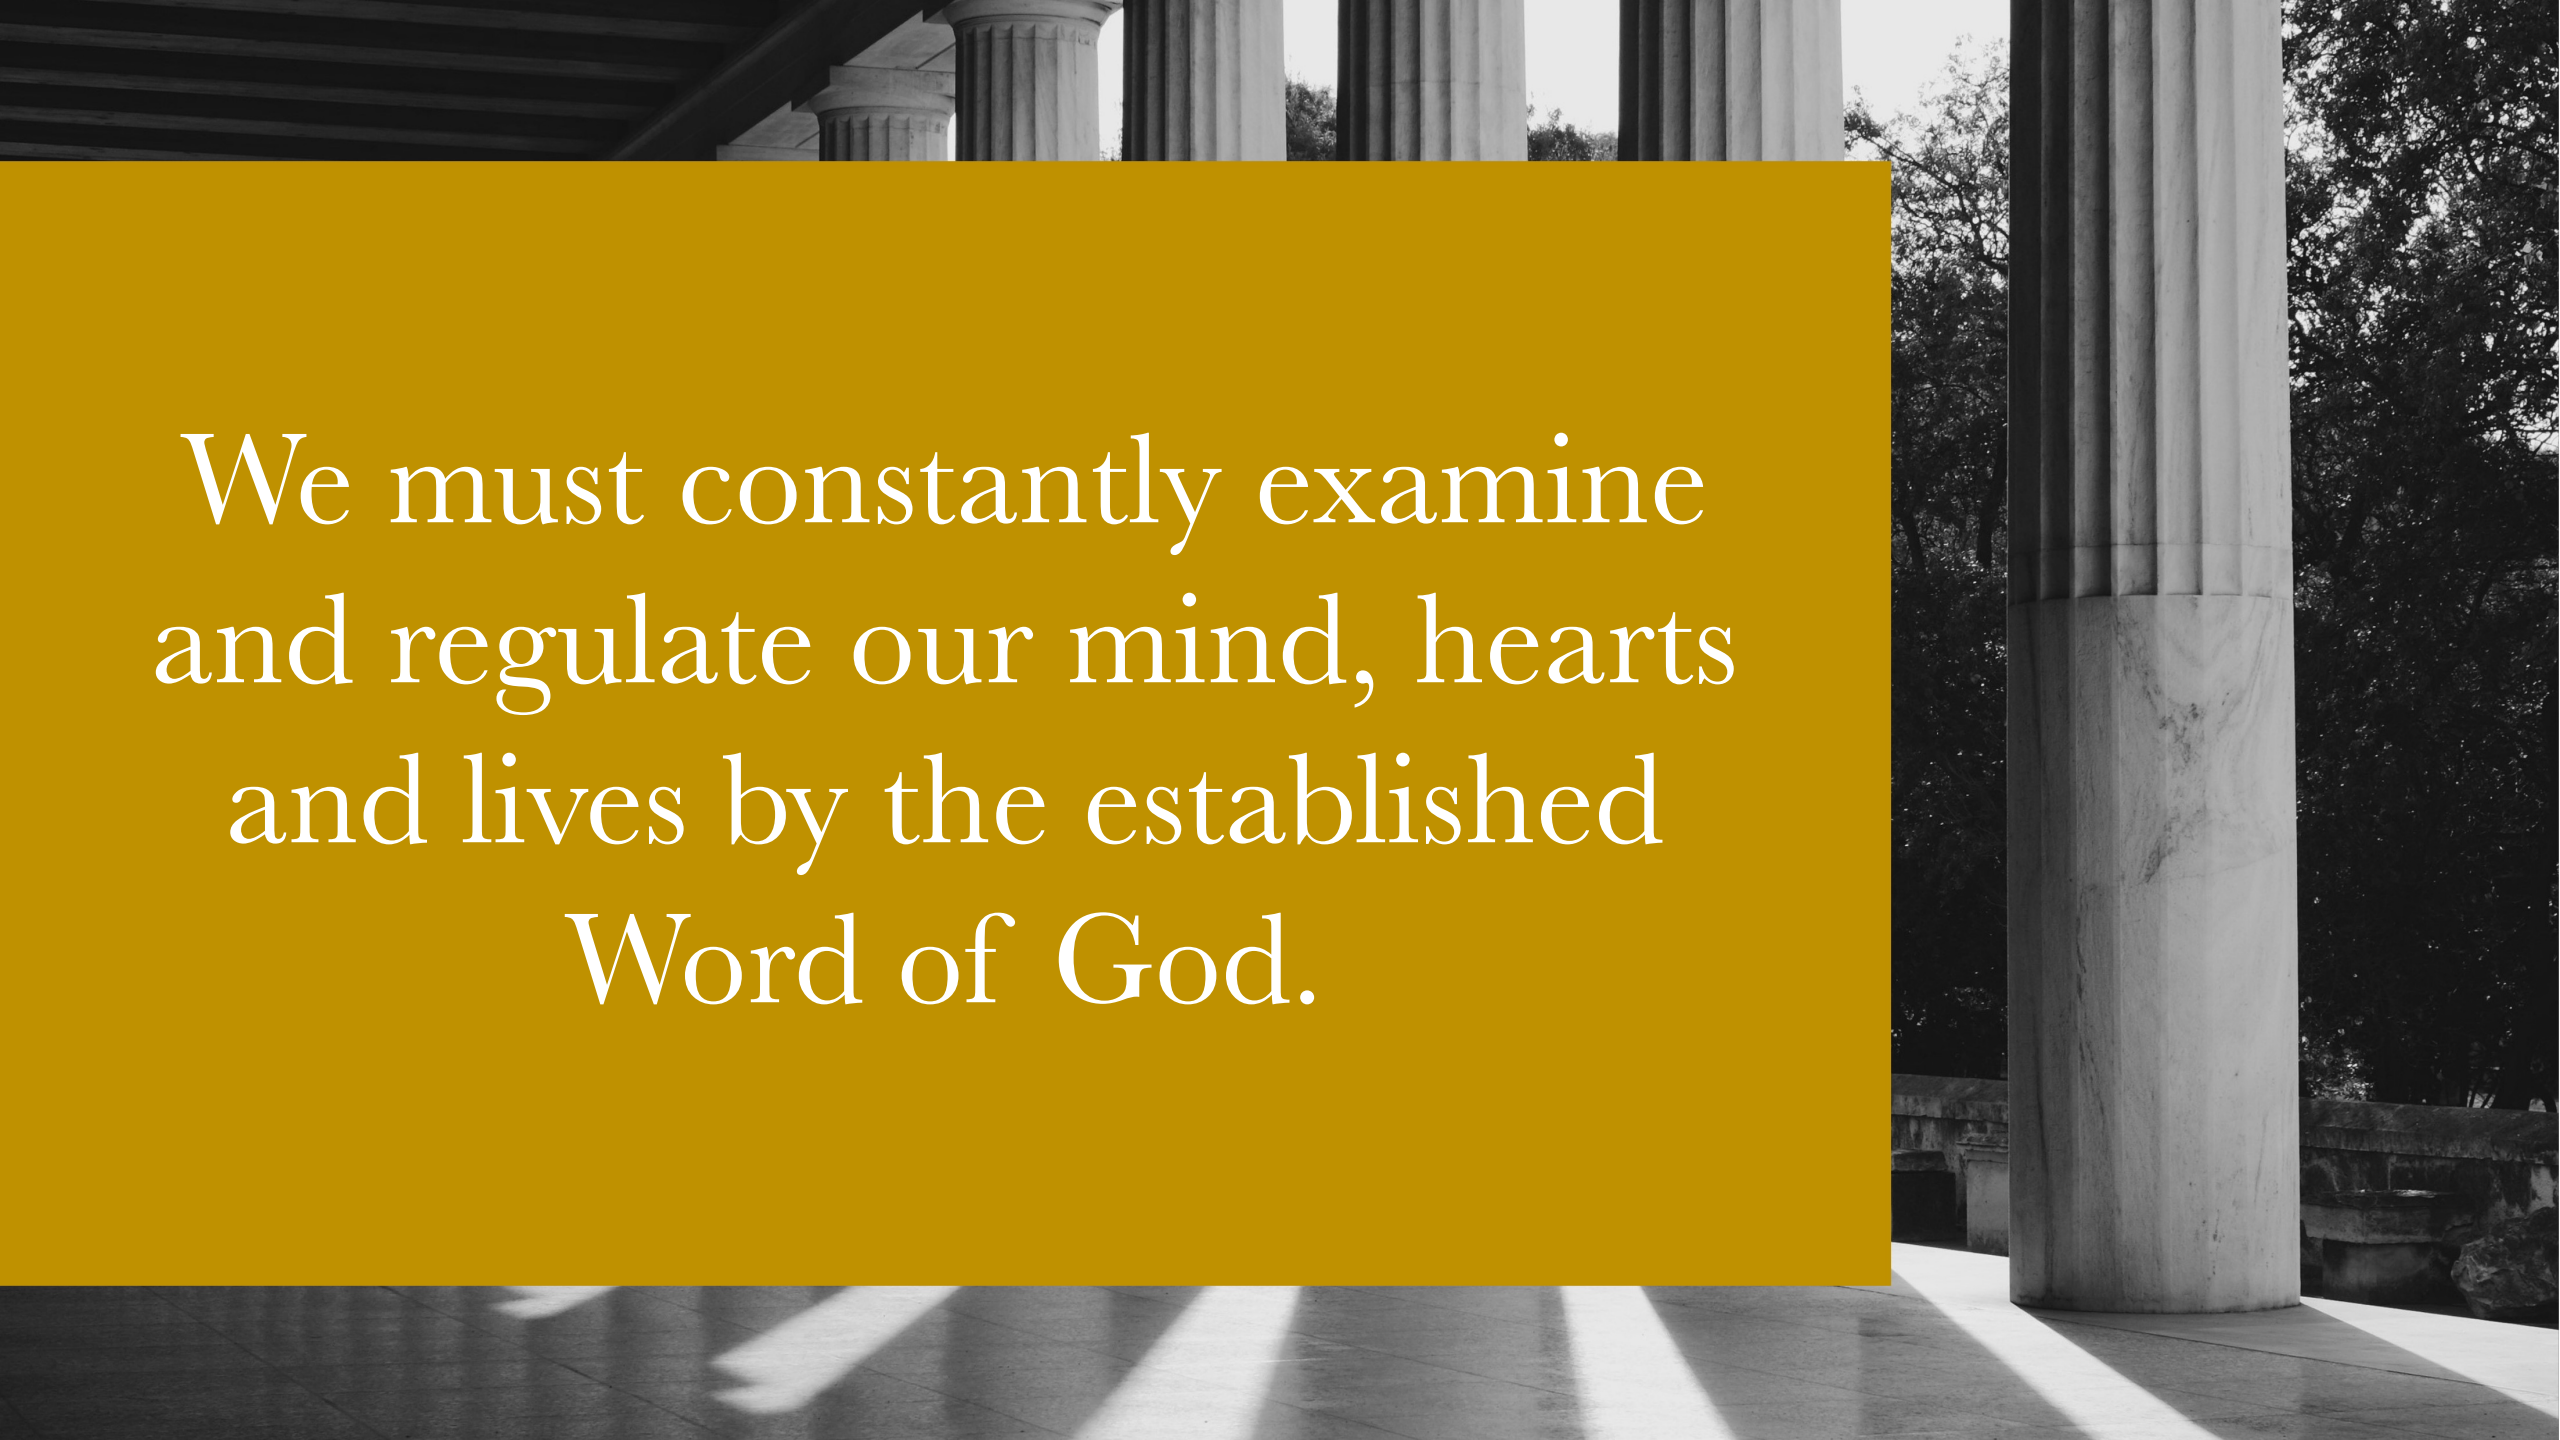

God, in mercy, gave the perfect law to show us, not how we could work to be right, but that no work we could do will make us right.

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is white and reads: "We do not do good works to GET favor with God, we do good works because we already HAVE favor with God." The background shows a row of columns and a stone floor with shadows cast by the columns.

We do not do good works to GET favor with God, we do good works because we already HAVE favor with God.

PATTERNED
BY THE LAW

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is white and reads: "We must constantly examine and regulate our mind, hearts and lives by the established Word of God." The background shows a row of columns on the left and a single column on the right, with trees and a sky visible in the distance. The ground is a light-colored stone or concrete.

We must constantly examine and regulate our mind, hearts
and lives by the established Word of God.

PERFORMANCE
IN THE LAW

Excessive external criticism
is a sign of unresolved
internal conviction.

ROMANS

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH