CONSISTENCY OF GOD
& CONDITION OF MAN

---

ROMANS 2.1-11

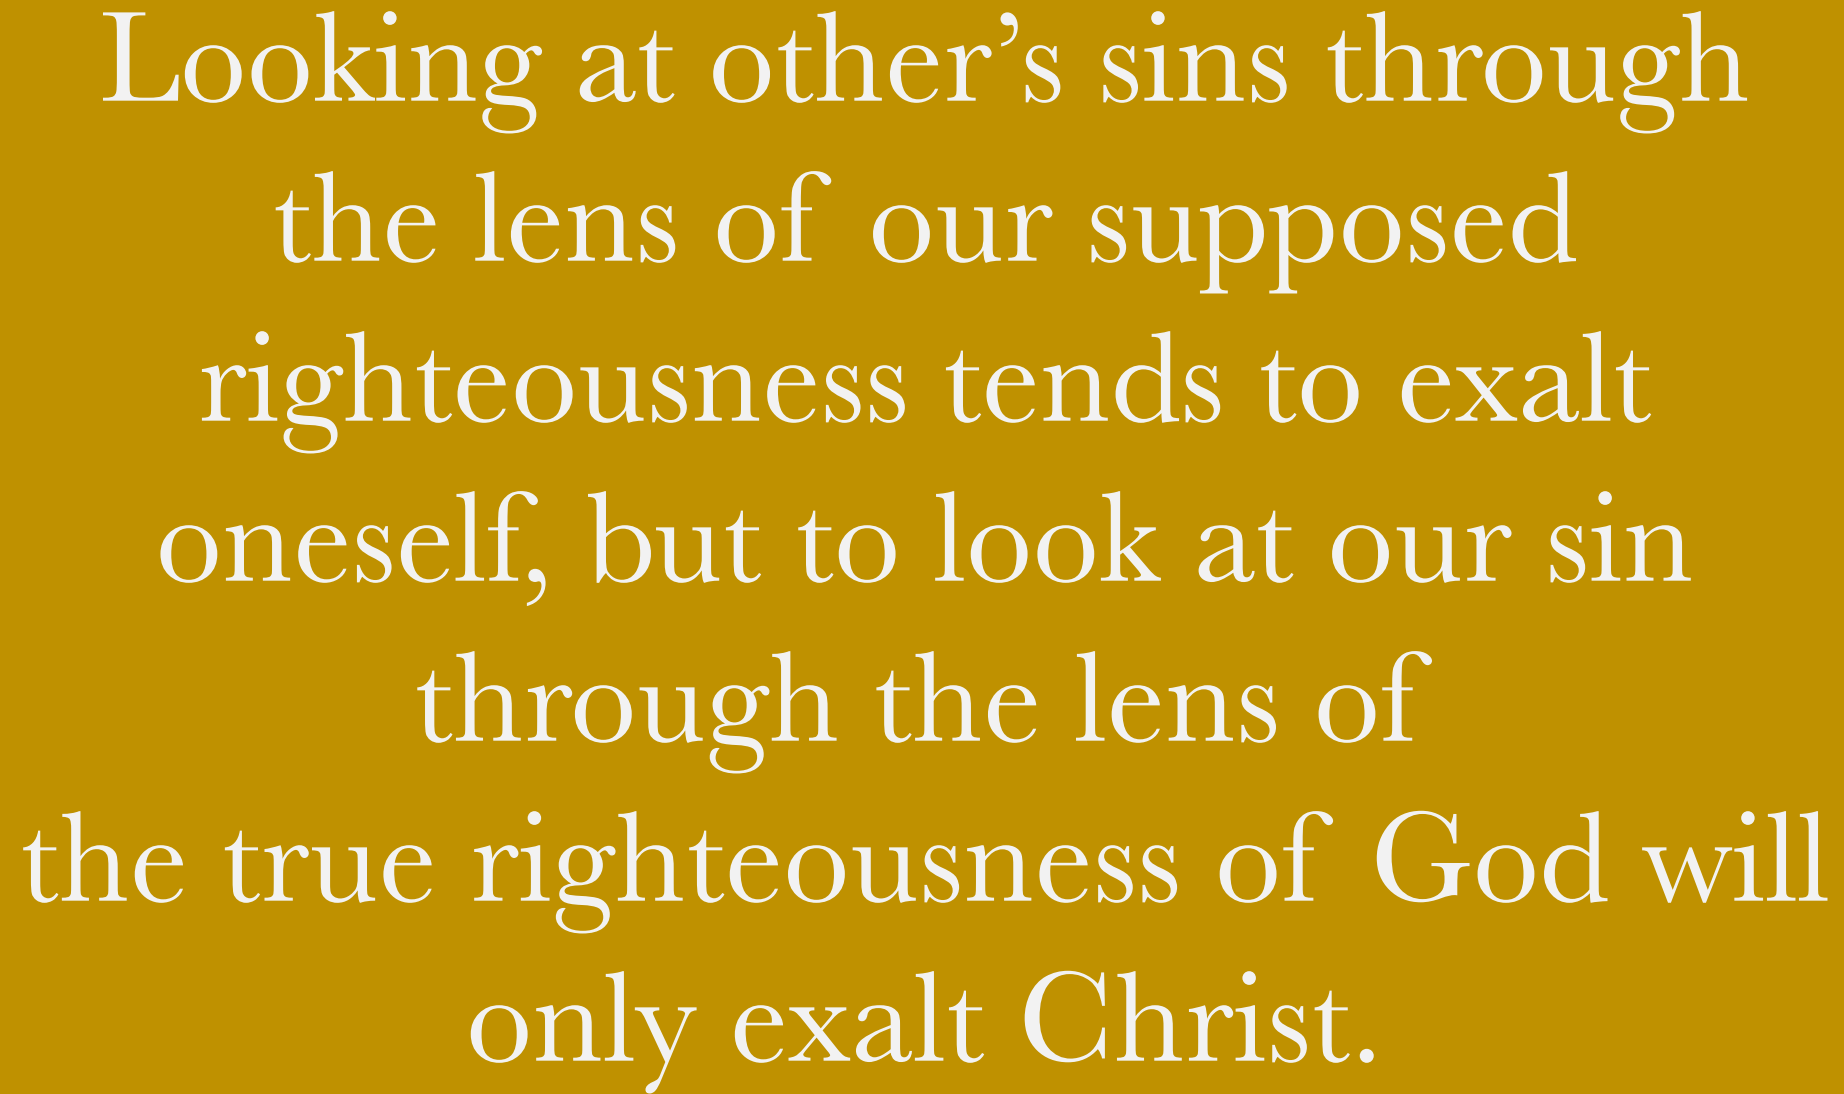

Every man is responsible
because of the reality of God,
but we are also responsible
because of the reality of our sin.

JUDGMENTAL SPIRIT

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is white and reads: "Looking at other's sins through the lens of our supposed righteousness tends to exalt oneself, but to look at our sin through the lens of the true righteousness of God will only exalt Christ." The background shows a row of columns and a stone floor with shadows cast by the columns.

Looking at other's sins through the lens of our supposed righteousness tends to exalt
oneself, but to look at our sin
through the lens of the true righteousness of God will only exalt Christ.

JUDICIAL SENTENCE

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is centered on a yellow rectangular background. The background image shows a row of white columns under a sky, with shadows cast on the ground in the foreground.

We are guilty, not because of the lack of our generated righteousness, but because of the presence of our unrighteousness.

SOVEREIGN

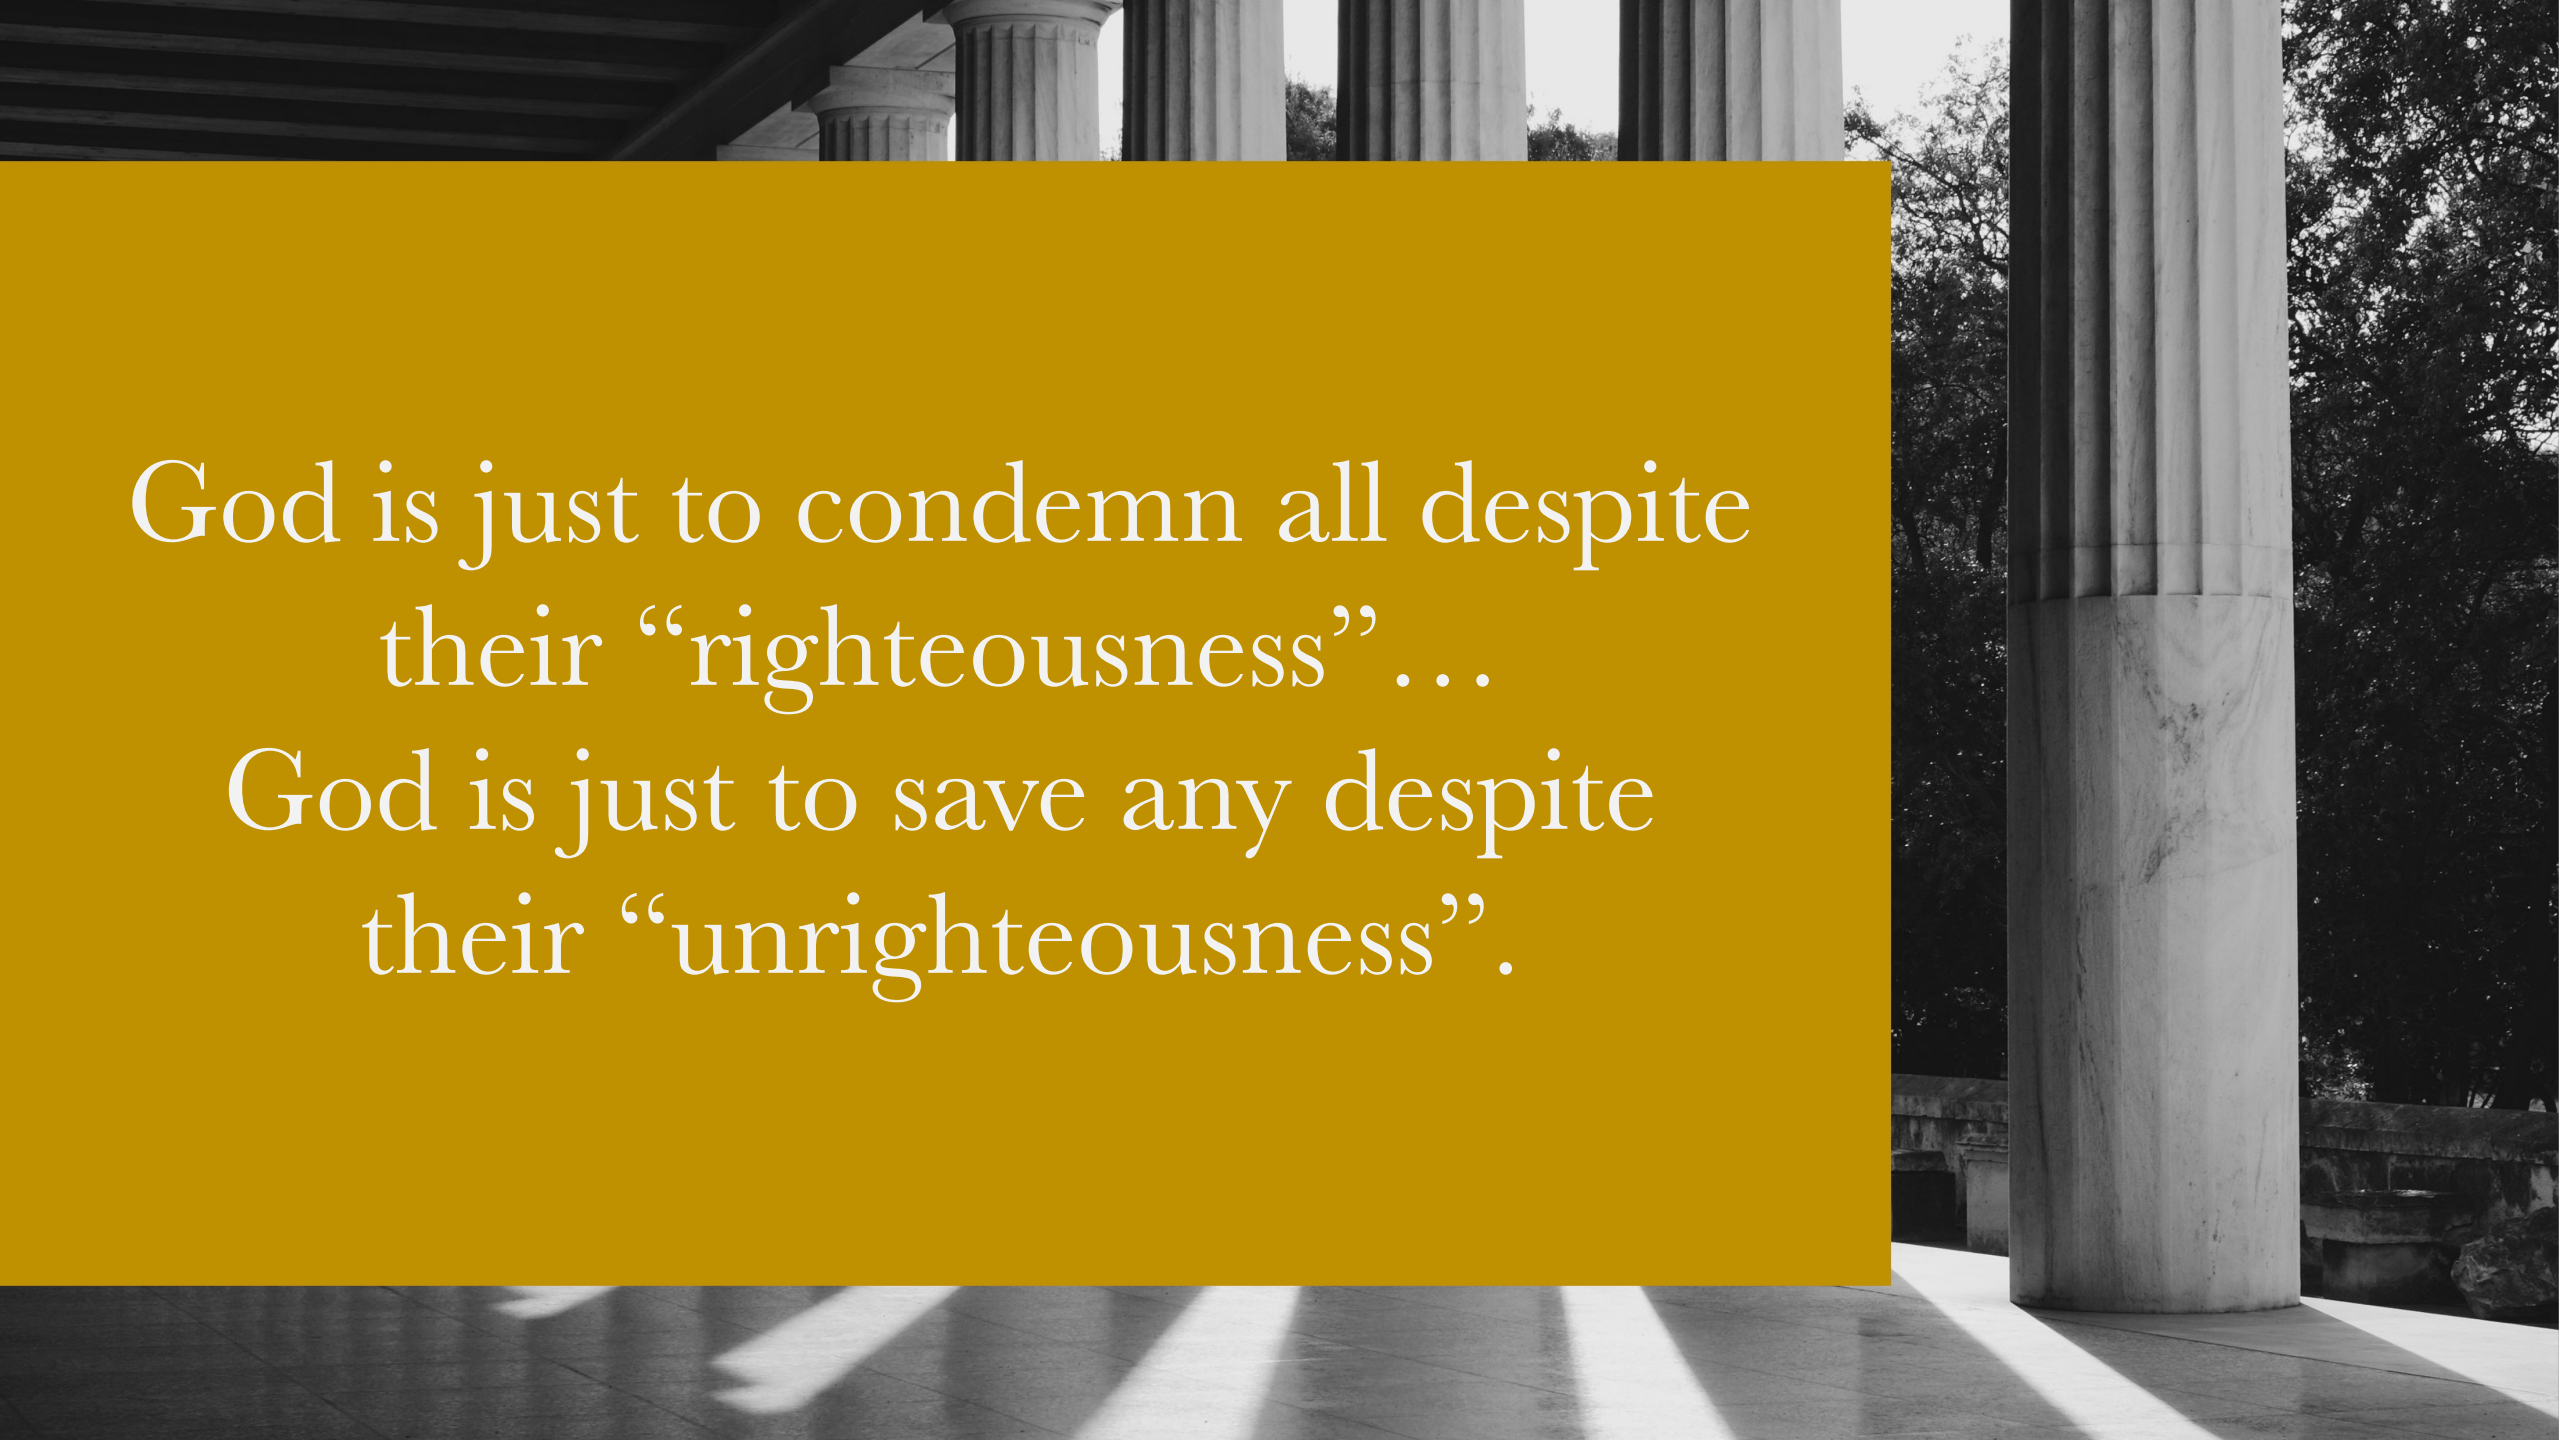

A photograph of a classical building with large white columns and a yellow text overlay. The text is centered on a yellow rectangular background that covers the middle portion of the image. The background image shows a row of tall, fluted white columns under a bright sky, with shadows cast on the ground in the foreground. The text is in a white, serif font.

The goodness of God,
that we do not deserve,
shines brightest against
the backdrop of
the wrath of God,
that we do deserve.

JUST SETTLEMENT

God is just to condemn all despite their “righteousness” ...
God is just to save any despite their “unrighteousness”.
