

•1In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. 2The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. 3And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. 4And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. 5God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Everyday we are unconsciously confessing what we believe.

•“I create the fruit of the lips: Isaiah 57:19

•It is interesting what faith people have in the wrong things:

•Our lips become the means of transportation of God’s deliverance from heaven to man’s need here on earth!

In Genesis 1, it reads that God saw darkness and said- let there be light.

HEALING

• When I speak it... Same power that formed the worlds can form organs.

• Because birth has just become a part of the way of life we do not shout when a baby is born with eyes.

• Why, we have a quiet faith that says- that's the way it's supposed to be.

• But if a person born blind receives sight- we call it a miracle- and rightfully so!

• But it's just as much a miracle for God to give a baby sight in a womb.

• The same God who can give sight in a womb is the same God who can give sight outside of the womb!

Whenever God wants something to come forth He talks to it.

- Jesus said, "If I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you" (Luke 11:20). He's not like other miracle workers who do amazing things and then life proceeds as it always has. No —to Jesus, his miracles were a sign indicating the coming of the kingdom of God. They were a foretaste of what the kingdom is going to be like. And that sets Jesus apart.
- Jesus saw his miracles as bringing about something unprecedented—the coming of God's dominion. He didn't merely see himself as a worker of miracles; he saw himself as the one in whom and through whom the promises of God come to pass.

•21 From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. 22And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you." 23But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. •Why is the anti-Christ not called anti-Jesus. It's because the anti-Christ spirit is visible when there is opposition to the anointing.

•The Sermon on the Mount is a treatise on the Kingdom. In it Jesus reveals the attitudes that help His followers to access His unseen world. As citizens of heaven, these attitudes are formed in us that we might fully apprehend all that His Kingdom has available. The Beatitudes are actually the “lenses” that the Kingdom is seen through. Repentance involves taking on the mind of Christ revealed in these verses. He could have put it this way: This is how the repentant mind looks.
