

- New years have a lot of pressure

- Stop thinking resolutions and start thinking revolutions.

- Revolution- To complete a revolution.

- Every birthday.REV. Measure progress.REV.

- REV.- Every one starts at the same line. Everyone finishes at the same line. ? is how are you living your Revolution?

- Are you living like the unmarked jar in tieback of your refrigerator?

- Think. Think hard. What shape are you holding and in what container are you held? Those are not questions to be asked or answered lightly.

- FLEA Video-

- Forcible overthrow in favor of a NEW system.

- The wicked flee though no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion. Proverbs 28:1

- The lion, which is mightiest among beasts and does not turn back before any; Proverbs 30:30

- Roar your Revolution

- You're going to make the loop. Make it BOLD! Overthrow the system you've been existing in. In 24 WE ROAR!

- Roaring is a way to gauge strength. For example, a strong, guttural roar from a male lion is not only attractive to lionesses, but it helps to indicate his overall prowess.

- able to gauge the strength of opposition based on the number of roars heard from other groups.

- LIONS ARE THE ONLY CATS WHO ROAR TOGETHER

- Lions are the only known cat species that roars together - with even young cubs joining in. can be heard from 5 miles away.*

- Lions roar almost exclusively at night. A recent study found that there is a peak of vocalizing near dawn...

- More likely to roar repeatedly near rivers and water points.

- THEY HUNT DURING STORMS-The noise, rain and/or wind make it harder for prey to see and hear them, increasing their chances of a successful hunt.

- People with a ROAR attitude are BOLD. They are courageous to stand for what they believe. They are brave to go a different direction when everyone else is going another way. They are willing to face their adversaries and challenges even if they are scared.

- People with the ROAR attitude achieve because they are bold enough to fight. They accept that their future is dependent on the choices they make today.

- Elephant Story- He saw a trainer nearby and asked why these animals just stood there and made no attempt to get away. "Well," trainer said, "when they are very young and much smaller we use the same size rope to tie them and, at that age, it's enough to hold them. As they grow up, they are conditioned to believe they cannot break away. They believe the rope can still hold them, so they never try to break free."

- This is My Year to Be BOLD!

- Declaration 24- I will Stand tall, ignite the fire within, and declare that I am a force to be reckoned with. I am tapping into the limitless potential of God and I have been given the ability to ROAR boldly in the face of adversity. I refuse to let apathy, fear or timidity dictate my choices or hinder my progress. I commit to bold action, to push beyond my comfort zone, and to seize opportunities. Boldness is not an option; it's my birthright. I am called. I am chosen. I am Filled with the Holy Spirit. And because of Jesus I am bold, I am powerful, and I am unstoppable.

- 24 HEAR ME ROAR!

- The ritual of anointing is practiced in almost every religion and among all races. Some people in East Africa, for example, pour lion oil on themselves, hoping to gain courage and strength of that Lion.

- Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. Revelation 5:5

- ROAR- Rise Overcome Achieve Revolve

• Lions are leaders because they demonstrate who they are. They are not afraid of what the other animals will do when they go after what they want. They do not seek respect! They command respect and authority because they know they should be respected.

• Courage, Strength, Leadership, Bravery

• Lions have no natural predators

• The book also mentions that a charging lion can cover one hundred yards in just three seconds.

•How we gorge on the meaningless, and substitute the exciting, risky, pursuit of life with a weak-kneed, lukewarm stupor.

☑ Do you live in your days like a forgotten ticket stub in someone's jacket? As if the show were behind you? As if you went out one evening to watch your life, and decided halfway through that it wasn't worth the price of admission.

• Scripture refers to the Enemy as a roaring lion on the prowl. And on the surface, it doesn't look like we stand a chance. He'll attack you through anxiety, frustration, anger, sadness, and confusion.

• The Bible likens the Devil to a lion. First Peter 5:8 tells us, "Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour."

• "If size mattered, then the elephant would be king of the jungle."

•

• The good news is his attack isn't a sneak attack. He is roaring. You can hear him coming for you.

• The question is... how do you win against a roaring lion?

• Here's the key: You don't run; you resist.

• You stand your ground in Christ and ask for His help because only He can protect you from the Enemy's attacks.

• Alone, you're an easy target. But when you stand in Christ's authority, that's when the Enemy has to run from YOU.

• Do you live in your days like a lone sock in the drawer whose match disappeared in the wash weeks or years ago.
