- •Attitude is a product of belief. Attitudes produce behaviors. Whatever we think about the most we manifest in our lives.
- •It's a persons thinking that makes them different.
- •Lion sees an elephant and thinks-LUNCH! He acts the way he thinks.
- •When elephant sees the lion he thinks=Lunch! AII of his abilities are limited by how he thinks.
- · Identify the belief that makes you think you're lunch and not lion.
- •Your life is what you think it should be. If you don't like who you are change how you think!
- What you believe determines how you behave.-
- BOLDNESS IS BEHAVIOR BORN OUT OF BELIEF.
- ·Lion is King because of what he believes about himself.

 An army of sheep led by a lion will always defeat an army of lions led by a sheep.

☑THOUGHT AUDIT- How many neg., fear filled, positive...

- •You will never know you're poor until you meet someone who has more.
- •1.Identify stronghold. Name it.- You cannot defeat what you cannot define.
- •2. Name the truth that demolishes that stronghold.
- •Most of our beliefs were set by someone whose beliefs were set by someone. But what if you allowed the Holy Spirit to set your beliefs.
- "I cannot afford to have a thought in my mind about me that God doesn't have in His."
- •To a Lion everything looks like lunch. To a gazelle everything looks like lunch.
- •Do you believe this? I believe. Help my unbelief.

- •The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. 2 Corinthians 10:3-5 (NIV)
- One of the saddest ways to live your life is being blind to your strengths. Here's the tricky thing: the world won't tell you your strength.
- ·Story of the Lion who thought he was a sheep.
- •End declaring over their lives!
