

Lev 26 (Covenant blessings and curses)

1. This chapter is part two of three part exhortation on how to live a
(_____).
_____).
2. Blessings for obedience (vs.1-13)
 - a. God will provide (_____) so that they will bear much fruit. (vs.4,5)
 - i. He will (_____) that they may enjoy the fruits of the land.
 - b. God will give them (_____.
(vs.6-8)
 - i. They will (_____) without having to fear their enemies. V. 6,7
 - ii. He will
(_____) from the land. V.6
 - iii. They will have
(_____. V.8
 - c. God will grant them to be (_____.
(vs.9-10)
 - d. The Lord will make His (_____.
(vs.11,12)
 - i. He will also (_____) and restore right relationship with them. (Gen.3:8; Rev.21:3,4)
 - ii. God is the one who brought them out of Egypt. (Rom. 8:32)
3. Curses for disobedience (14-39)
 - a. As in Deuteronomy 28 the curses far outnumber the blessings.
 - i. Deuteronomy 28 has
(_____.
_____).

- ii. The curses were not simply meant to punish but to (_____) back to obedience.
- iii. Many of the curses were the exact opposite of the blessings that were promised.

b. There are (_____) Each one
(_____) as they progress. (Amos 4:6-12)

- i. All throughout the Lord repeats, (_____) to make sure they know that it was a direct response from God for their disobedience.

ii. First—(vs. 16-17)

1. (_____),
2. (_____),
3. They will sow uselessly because their (_____). (Gen.
3:17-19)
4. They will be defeated and
(_____) as a result of the Lord setting His face against them.
5. They will (_____). They will live in anxiety and fear.

iii. Second- (vs. 18-20)

1. (_____)
after the first set of judgments the punishment will increase sevenfold. (v.18)
(Heb. 12:5-11)
2. They will (_____) (19a)
3. There will be (_____). (v.
19b)
4. Their (_____)
because the land will not produce trees and thus no fruit. (v.20)

iv. Third (vs.21-22)

1. If the previous judgment doesn't bring them to repentance God will
(_____)
_according to their sins. (v.21)

2. (_____) will decimate their families and their cattle. (v.22)

v. Fourth (vs.23-26)

1. If the previous judgment does not bring them to repentance then God will act with hostility against them and will strike them (_____) for their sins. (vs.23,24)
2. Their enemies will bring the (_____). (v. 25)
3. (_____) so that they will be defeated by their enemies. (v.25b)
4. (_____) will besiege the cities. (v.26)

vi. Fifth (vs.27-39)

1. If the previously judgment does not bring them to repentance then God will act wrathfully and will punish them (_____) for their sins.
2. They will (_____). (v.29)
3. (_____) and places of worship for those idols. (v.30)
4. Their cities and sanctuaries will become desolate and (_____) (v.31,32)
5. They will be (_____). (v.33)
6. The (_____) that God commanded them to obey. (v.34,35)
7. Those who remain will (_____) and will have no strength. (v.36,37)
8. Those who remain the land will consume them and (_____). (v.39)

4. God will forgive if they turn from their sins. (vs.40-46)

- a. (_____) once again if they confess their sins and the sins of their forefathers. (v.39-42)
- b. (_____) as it should have to begin with. (v.43)

Study Questions for Leviticus 27

- A. What is the primary purpose of the laws of valuation of various things and people in this chapter?

- B. Do these valuations teach that certain people are more valuable in God's eyes?
- C. What is the distinction between redeemable and unredeemable in this chapter