Acts 11:25 (MEV) Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul.

Barnabas saw what others did not see.

Barnabas did what others would not do.

Barnabas paid a price others would not pay.

Acts 4:36 Joseph, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means, Son of Encouragement), a Levite from the land of Cyprus, sold a field he owned, and brought the money and placed it at the apostles' feet.

Acts 9:29 And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Hellenists. But they tried to kill him.

Acts 9:30 When the brothers learned this, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 Then the churches throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and were built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

Acts 11:25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul.

Acts 13:2-3 As they worshipped the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:13 Now when Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia.

Acts 15:36 Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit our brothers in every city where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing."

Acts 15:37 Barnabas determined to take with them John, who was called Mark.

Acts 15:38 But Paul thought it was not good to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work.

Acts 15:39 Then there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other.

Acts 15:39-40 Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus, but Paul chose Silas and departed.
