

Michael Hairston

Date: 10-13-2024

International Christian Center

Message Title: Restore: R U Ready?

What are you hoping for? Do you have a mental picture?

On a scale of 1 (not good) to 5 (fantastic) rate your readiness for restoration. Give yourself a score now and be ready to compare at the end of the lesson. _____

John 8:36 (NLT) – So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free.

Restoration is _____ driven before being _____ exhibited.

Questions from God to you:

- 1) Are you seeking God to _____ everything _____ you or just restore what you _____ is _____ externally?

- 2) Will you allow God to _____ your _____ before He restores what is _____ externally?

The Readiness Model: R 4 Cheat Code

- 1) _____ Titus 3:5-7 (Good News Translation)
- 2) _____ Colossians 3:10 (New Living Translation)
- 3) _____ Psalms 51:10 (New Living Translation)
- 4) _____ 2 Corinthians 4:16 (New Living Translation)

Notes on The Readiness Model: R4 Cheat Code

[illegible]

REVITALIZE: Game Change

This is _____ for restore so now you can _____ the game & _____ outcomes.

The _____ plan of God is _____ you so that He can _____ to restore _____.

Proverbs 11:25 - The generous will prosper, those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed

RESTORE: His _____, His _____, His _____, and His _____

Here is the _____ news. You will _____ from His restoration plan working _____ and _____.

Personal Takeaway

On a scale of 1 to 5, rate your readiness. Compare this new score to the previous one. Any change? If so, why?

3 Important questions:

- 1) Which R in the Readiness model best represents you? Which one is your strength?
- 2) Which R in the Readiness model is an opportunity for personal growth?

3) What is the one thing you will do differently this week to be ready for the restoration you desire?