

From Upper Room to Our Room 4: Preparing for the Great Awakening

Chriss Sopke Sr.

Sunday, July 28, 2024

Spirit-Led Revolution 16

Acts 2:42–45; Psalm 34:9; 2 Corinthians 6:17; Hebrews 12:14; 2

Corinthians 7:1; Acts 1:8; 2 Corinthians 9:7

INTRODUCTION

— From Upper Room to Our Room: Preparing for the Great Awakening (Recap)

- The Great American Awakenings

- First Great Awakening (_____)
- Second Great Awakening (_____)
- Third Great Awakening (_____)
- Fourth Great Awakening (_____)
- Fifth Great Awakening (Lord willing _____!)

- The Mission of NLC

1. _____ God
2. _____ Like Jesus
3. _____ from the Holy Spirit
4. _____ Others to New Life

— 12 Signs to Pursue as We Prepare for the Next Great Awakening

7. _____ FOR PRAYER

- Dynamic Prayer Follows Dynamic _____
- What Missional Point Best Supports this Sign?

- Answer: _____

8. MANIFEST _____ OF GOD

- The Early Church Had a Deep Sense of _____
- What Missional Point Best Supports this Sign?

- Answer: _____

9. INCREASE IN _____

- The Church Wasn't Promoting _____; It Was Encouraging Community
- What Missional Point Best Supports this Sign?

- Answer: _____

BRINGING IT HOME

- Have You Lost Your Love for Fellow Believers?
- What Do You Fear Most- God or Man

RESPOND (How is the Lord Challenging Me?)

- _____ I want to live in the fear of the Lord instead of the spirit of fear
- _____ I've been thinking more about my own needs and neglecting those of my fellow believers, and I need the Holy Spirit's help to change this
- _____ I want to give my heart to Jesus as my personal Lord and Savior

GROW (Going Deeper for Personal Study)

- What steps can we take to develop a deeper passion for prayer within our church community, allowing our corporate prayers to be more impactful and transformative?
- How can we cultivate a deeper sense of awe and reverence for God in our personal lives, similar to what the early church experienced?
- How can we emulate the sacrificial love and generosity displayed by the early believers in Acts 2, especially in our interactions with fellow believers within our church community?