

Still Standing, Still Singing 2: Grace at the Edge Sun, Nov 30, 2025

Chriss Sopke Sr.

Spirit-Led Revolution 43

Acts 16:25–34; Deuteronomy 32:39; 2 Corinthians 1:3–4; 2 Corinthians 6:2

DISCOVER (Message Notes)

INTRODUCTION

— Part 1: _____ in the Dark

— Part 2: _____ at the Edge

1. PRAISE THAT BREAKS THE _____

— Our Worship Invites God's _____

— Our Freedom Comes from the _____ Out

2. GRACE THAT _____ THE UNTHINKABLE

— Grace Reaches Us at Our Breaking Point

— Grace Steps Between Us and _____

— Grace Saves More Than a Life; It Saves a _____

SEALING THE DEAL

— To Those Carrying the Weight of Suicide or Loss...

— To Those Who Are Contemplating Suicide or Fighting Thoughts You Haven't Dared to Say Out Loud...

— To Every Person Listening to this Message...

RESPOND (How is the Lord Challenging Me?)

- _____ I need God to heal a wound in me that's connected to suicide or loss
- _____ I've been fighting dark thoughts, and today I'm choosing to reach out and let someone walk with me
- _____ I'm ready for salvation. I'm ready for grace at my edge. Today, I'm choosing Jesus!

GROW (Going Deeper for Personal Study)

- Reflect: Where am I closest to “the edge” right now, in grief, in thoughts, or in discouragement, and what is God saying to me in that place?
- Read & Pray: Acts 16:25–34 and 2 Corinthians 1:3–4. Let these passages remind you of who God is in your darkest moments and who He uses you to reach. Ask God to bring someone to mind who needs encouragement, a phone call, or a check-in. Pray for the Holy Spirit to give you boldness to step toward them this week.
- Take a Step: Have one honest conversation this week by either asking for or offering help. Don't walk alone, and don't let others walk alone either. Grace moves toward people at the edge.