RESPOND (How is the Lord Challenging Me?)

- _____ I need to step into more faith. I've been hesitant, waiting for everything to make sense. But today I'm choosing to trust God even when the map runs out.
- _____ I need to step into more obedience. God's already spoken something to my heart, and it's time to stop delaying and start doing.
- _____ I need to step into more hospitality. I want to open my life, my home, my time, and my heart, so others can experience Jesus through me.
- _____ I need to give my life to Jesus. Like Lydia, I sense God opening my heart today. I want to surrender to Him fully and follow His leading.

GROW (Going Deeper for Personal Study)

- Reflect: Read Acts 16:11–15 slowly and prayerfully. Ask yourself: Where do I see faith, obedience, and hospitality in this story? Which one is God challenging me to grow in right now?
- Study: Philippians 1:3–6 – Remember how Paul later wrote to this same church that began in Lydia's home. Rom 12:9–13 – A picture of genuine love and practical hospitality in the early church. James 2:14–17 – How faith and obedience work together.
- Take a Step: Ask God to show you one simple way to make room for others this week. Maybe it's a meal, a conversation, or an invitation to church. Then, step into it with faith.
