

When the Gospel Confronts Our Expectations

Chriss Sopke Sr.

Sunday, March 8, 2026

What happens when Jesus doesn't fit the picture we expected? This morning, we'll see how the Gospel confronts our expectations, why God isn't finished with Israel, and how Jesus still speaks courage into His people today.

DISCOVER (Message Notes)

INTRODUCTION

- When Work, _____, and Mission Move Together (Recap)
- _____ Will Never Stop the Mission

1. THE GOSPEL ALWAYS CONFRONTS OUR _____

- Jesus Didn't Fit the _____ They Wanted
- _____ Still Confronts Our Expectations
- The Gospel Doesn't Just _____ Us; It Confronts Us!

2. GOD'S _____ WITH ISRAEL STILL STANDS

- God Always Keeps His _____
- God Doesn't _____ His Promises
- God Hasn't Given Up on Israel

— As the Lead Pastor, and as a Church Family...

- We unapologetically stand in prayer for the Jewish people
- We openly bless the people of Israel
- We trust God to fulfill every promise He has made to them

— God's Son was Born a Jewish Man

3. GOD SPEAKS _____ INTO HIS SERVANTS

- Fear Doesn't _____ Us
- Jesus Is Present in the _____
- God Already Has _____ He's Reaching

BRINGING IT HOME

- Courage Begins with Trusting Jesus
- The Mission Always Starts Where God Has Placed Us
- God Still Has People He Wants to Reach