

I Still Will

Pastor Mark Honeycutt • Sunday, July 6th, 2025

We hope this material will continue to minister as the sermon was preached during our weekly worship service. When we receive God's Word at church, we need not only to hear the message, but we ought to walk it out in our daily lives. We should "be doers of the word, not only hearers." (James 1:22)

Step 1: GET TOGETHER with your family or group.

Step 2: REVIEW the key points and scriptures from the message.

Step 3: SHARE with your group what God is saying to you through the message.

Step 4: PRAY together, for each other and over each other to continue to walk this word out.

The Big Idea

Jesus isn't intimidated by your doubts—He's still willing to move. A desperate father once brought his demon-possessed son to Jesus after the disciples failed to heal him. The man said, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief." And instead of rejecting him for his weak faith, Jesus still heals. This reveals a powerful truth: God's grace can move even when our faith feels shaky. He's not looking for perfection—He's looking for trust.

Don't Miss This Point!

Read Mark 9:14-29. Be careful who you allow to speak into your life—faith can be nurtured or hindered by the voices around you. The father describes how the disciples couldn't help his son, and the crowd added to the confusion. Satan often uses people to sow doubt and frustration, especially in vulnerable moments. Guard your circle—faith grows in the right environment.

Another Great Point!

Read Ephesians 3:20. God's ability is never in question—our faith is. The father pleads with Jesus, "If You can do anything..." But Jesus answers, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes." Sometimes our prayers sound like "if You can," but Jesus makes it clear—He can. The real battle is not whether God is able, but whether we're willing to trust Him. God is more than able.

One Last Point!

Read James 4:6. Preachers and leaders must live a lifestyle that keeps the spiritual fire burning—not just for themselves, but for others. Jesus said, "This kind can come out by nothing but prayer and fasting." Jesus taught that deep-rooted problems require deep-rooted devotion. For Kingdom leaders, it's not just about a moment of faith—it's about a consistent lifestyle of prayer, humility, and holiness. And any ministry that changes lives flows from humility and discipline.

Let's Be Doers!

This week, don't wait until your faith is perfect—but see your faith as powerful. Bring your questions to Jesus. Confess, "I believe, help my unbelief," and trust that He still will heal, restore, and move. Watch the voices you allow to speak into your life—surround yourself with people who push your faith forward, not pull it back. And if you're a leader or someone others look up to, deepen your lifestyle of prayer and fasting. Jesus is still healing—even when your faith feels fragile. Your role? Just keep coming to Him.
