OBSERVE THE PASSAGE

Read Acts 6:1-15, then focus on verses 1-7. Follow along with the recording. Pause or replay whenever you need more time to read, reflect, or write.

Q1. Who are the two groups in verse 1? What need does Luke identify? Which details are stated, and which explanations would be inference?

Q2. Read Acts 6:2-4. How do the apostles protect their ministry and give the widows' care serious attention?

Q3. Which qualification in verse 3 challenges your assumptions about service? Why does that qualification matter to the widows?

UNDERSTAND THE MESSAGE

Q4. How does Luke use related service words for daily provision, serving tables, and ministry of the Word? Why does ordinary service language alone not establish an office title? (Acts 6:1-4)

Q5. Follow the actions in verses 5-6. Who chooses, who presents, and who prays? What does the text say about the Holy Spirit before the laying on of hands?

Q6. What increases in verse 7? Who were the priests becoming obedient to the faith? What should we avoid claiming about every religious leader or promising about numerical growth?

RESPOND AND APPLY

Q7. A member reports repeated missed support. The care team feels criticized. What should happen next? Ground your response in Acts 6:1-6.

My response: the need, the responsibility, and a dependable next step

Consider the need, what was promised, and who can follow through. Use general descriptions rather than another person's private details. Both sincere effort and missed care can be real.

Q8. One faithful next step

Because of Acts 6:1-7, this week I will... Write one action and when you will begin. Keep private details out of your response.

My action / when I will begin / someone who can encourage me

Choose a commitment you can realistically keep. Asking for help before a responsibility fails can be part of faithful service.

REFLECTION AND NEXT WEEK

Christ's people share responsibility so practical care receives attention and the ministry of the Word continues.

What insight from the recording helped me understand the passage?

My question for follow-up, prayer response, or personal notes

NEXT WEEK | MOVEMENT 2

Wisdom They Could Not Resist

Acts 6:8-10

Read Acts 6:8-10 again. Notice Stephen's character and public witness, and the wisdom and the spirit by which he speaks. Movement 3 will study Acts 6:11-15. Stephen's speech and death occur in Acts 7.

Thank you for studying with us. Bring your response and the people receiving care before the Lord in prayer.
