SENIOR PASTOR

EVERY DAY BELONGS TO GOD

Celebrating His Light, Not Fearing the Darkness

THY KINGDOM COME • Pastor Travis M. Tullis

BIG IDEA

Every day belongs to God. Because Christ is the Light that darkness cannot overcome, we can live in Christian liberty without participating in darkness.

OPEN YOUR BIBLE

Read Psalm 118:24; John 1:1–5; and 1 John 1:5–7 (KJV).

Then read Colossians 1:12–13 and Romans 14:5–6.

1 | THE DAY BELONGS TO GOD

What does Psalm 118:24 teach us about rejoicing in the Lord?

2 | THE LIGHT CANNOT BE OVERCOME

What does John 1:1–5 reveal about Jesus and the darkness?

KEY VERSE • John 1:5 — The light shines in darkness.

CHRISTIAN LIBERTY & DISCERNMENT

Read Romans 14:5–6; Colossians 2:16–17; Galatians 5:1.

3 | LIBERTY IS NOT LAWLESSNESS

How do biblical commands differ from personal convictions about a day?

4 | REDEMPTION, NOT FEAR

What do Ezekiel 18:20 and Galatians 3:13 teach in their contexts?

5 | WALK AS CHILDREN OF LIGHT

Read Ephesians 5:8–11 and Deuteronomy 18:9–12. What practices must we reject?

REMEMBER

Christian freedom is not permission to practice what Scripture forbids.
Nor should personal convictions become rules imposed on every believer.

FROM FEAR TO FAITHFULNESS

Read Colossians 1:13; Matthew 6:10; and John 8:36.

6 | TEACHING OUR CHILDREN

How can our family celebrate joyfully without glorifying evil or death?

7 | HALLOWEEN & ALL SAINTS' DAY

How can we distinguish remembering faithful believers from consulting the dead?

8 | KINGDOM WITNESS

How can Hallelujah Night become an opportunity to love and serve neighbors?

THIS WEEK, I WILL...

BRING YOUR QUESTIONS

An honest, biblical conversation that strengthens our faith.

Topics: Christian liberty • Halloween and All Saints' Day • occult practices and discernment • overcoming fear • living as children of light
