

Biblical Leadership Principles

Session 3 - The Growth of a Leader

In order to lead others well, you must first learn to lead _____ well.

2 Timothy 2:15 KJV

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:15 NIV

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Psalms 119:15-16

I meditate on your precepts and consider your ways.
I delight in your decrees; I will not neglect your word.

1 Peter 3:15-16

But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have.

It's never a waste of time to _____ your tools.

The Leadership Lid

John Maxwell defines the Law of the Lid by saying "leadership ability is the lid that determines a person's level of _____. The lower an individual's ability to lead, the lower the lid on his potential.

Discover, _____, Deploy

Someone once asked DL Moody which people gave him the most trouble. To which he immediately answered, "I have had more trouble with DL Moody than any man alive."

You can't _____ others somewhere that you haven't _____. You can not teach others something that you have not learned.

1 Cor 11:1

Paul said, "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ."

Growth is only possible if you are willing to _____ the _____ for it.

What you are going to be _____, you are becoming _____

"Successful people do consistently what others do occasionally"
- Craig Groeshel

Zechariah 4:10

Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin...

"I will get ready and then perhaps my chance will come."
- Abraham Lincoln

Be responsible for what you have received.

Luke 12:48b

....From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.
