Psalm 100

Discuss It!

What are Sunday mornings like for you as you are getting up and heading to church?

What attitudes should characterize our worship (100:1-2, 4)?

What would the Psalmist have us understand about the LORD's character (100:3, 5)?

How would you describe God's relationship with His people (100:3)?

Why is the Lord worthy of our praise (100:1-3)?

Why is the Lord worthy of our thanksgiving (100:4-5)?

What changes could you make to improve your Sunday morning gatherings with God's people for worship?

Live It!

Our gratitude for God is incomplete if it is not expressed!

How will you prepare yourself to give praise and thanks to God each time we gather as God's people for worship?

Begin today by standing and giving a testimony of thanksgiving to God for His work in your life.

Psalm 100:1-5 (NIV)

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness;

come before him with joyful songs.

Know that the LORD is God.

It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;

give thanks to him and praise his name.

For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.
