EVERYDAY EVANGELISM: HOW TO HAVE DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS | Sunday, Nov. 5, 4PM at Mt. Zion

In our One Another series, we have talked about forgiving people who have hurt us, being kind to people who don't deserve it, putting up with annoying and irritating people, and accepting people that we don't agree with. On November 5, Pastor Vance will be leading a seminar on how to have those difficult conversations with those kinds of people in our lives. It might be a family member you get in political arguments with, the friend who betrayed you, your teenager that you aren't sure how to parent anymore, or the non-Christian in your life that you aren't sure how to have a deeper conversation about Jesus with. Loving one another in all of these difficult ways will require difficult conversations and Pastor Vance will lead us in a conversation this day about some practical things we can do (or not do) to navigate some of those difficult conversations. Sign up at the Welcome Center to join us for this exciting conversation!

SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS | Sunday, November 12, 2PM-4PM at Mt. Zion

Facing grief this holiday season? Are you dreading the holidays? Wondering how you will survive the weeks surrounding Thanksgiving and Christmas? It is our prayer that our Surviving the Holidays single-session event will offer you help and hope as you navigate the holiday season. Together we'll learn how to deal with the many emotions you'll face during the holidays, what to do about traditions and other coming changes, helpful tips for surviving social events, and how to discover hope for your future. To register, please scan the code, sign up at the Welcome Center, or visit griefshare.org/holidays/events/47408.

SERMON NOTES

Bear One Another's Burdens

October 15, 2023 | Galatians 6:1-5 | Pastor Vance Weeks

Galatians 6:2

- Bear
- Burdens
- Fulfill the Law

Galatians 6:1-5

- Overcome by sin
- Be careful
- You're not that important
- Carry your own burden

How can we bear each other's burdens?

1. Take care of yourself first
2. Don't Judge
3. Don't solve problems
4. Develop a heart of prayer
5. Stop Being Self-Consumed
