WORD FROM OUR PASTOR, DR. SKAAR

The world discounts the importance of fathers in the home, but that’s because the world has things upside down, and Satan understands the powerful influence fathers can make in their children’s lives. Our First Baptist Family is blessed with many godly men, and we are praying for God to help us reach many more men for Christ. Today, I want to commend, encourage, and challenge all our men, whether they are dads or not, to be men of God and follow His call.

This past week, our children were at Kid’s Camp, and a group of our youth was in the Valley on mission working on the Buckner House. The future of God’s Kingdom is found in these children and youth, and the investment in their lives is one that makes a difference now and for eternity. I’m grateful to be part of a church family who believes that. Thank you, Laura, Skip, and Chad, for all the leadership you gave these children and youth. Thank you, sponsors, for taking vacation time to go and be with them. Thank you, FBC family, for your stewardship and prayer support that makes it possible.

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
