WORD FROM OUR PASTOR, DR. SKAAR

As we gather this morning, a group of our older youth, along with Skip, Chad, and sponsors, are worshipping with BT Church, a sister Baptist church in McAllen. They left Friday and are working to help finish the Buckner house we built in our Spring mission project. This home will bless the lives of the family receiving it in a wonderful way and be used by God as a testimony in its community for Jesus. Pray for our students as they continue working through Wednesday and then travel home. Tomorrow morning, Laura and 51 others, including sponsors and children, will be heading to Glen Rose for Kid’s Camp at Riverbend Baptist Encampment. Pray for the group this week.

These ministries are powerful tools that God uses to reach and teach children and youth about Jesus and His plan for their lives. I’m grateful for a church family that invests in young people, but that investment is not possible without the faithful giving and service of adults. While today’s message in our series on the family of God has a focus on senior adults, the principles are applicable to everyone, challenging all of us to be faithful to God till the day He calls us home.

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
