WORD FROM OUR PASTOR, DR. SKAAR

Last Sunday was a wonderful morning of worship, beginning with a sunrise service at 7 am and going through the morning with our Bible Studies and worship services. Combined service attendance was over 700, and the Lord led three to unite with our family. There were also several people who indicated making decisions to receive Christ, and I'm sure that we will get to help many of them take the next steps in identifying with Christ through baptism. Easter Sunday is a time when the Lord always reminds me of the potential for future growth and the need to keep reaching out to people for Christ. I'm thankful to be in a church family with a heart to do that.

This afternoon, a group will leave to begin building the house for the Reyes family near Mission in South Texas. This house is not just about changing the life of that family. It is also about giving a testimony for Christ to that community. Only heaven will reveal the full impact of how many people end up hearing the gospel and coming to Christ as they inquire about why this house is being built, but I know our Heavenly Father is pleased that we said yes to His invitation to partner with Buckner International in this mission. Pray for the team this week.

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
