

The Sermon on the Mount Those who Mourn

Matthew 5:4

A General P_____

For His anger lasts only a moment, but His favor, a lifetime. Weeping may spend the night, but there is joy in the morning. - Psalm 30:5

A Specific C_____

In 721 B.C., the ten northern tribes of Israel were brought into exile by Assyria. In 586 B.C., the two southern tribes of Judah were brought into exile by Babylon and the temple was destroyed.

Although they had returned to Israel, the godly remnant of Israel mourned that they remained in exile due to the disobedience of their forefathers.

Jesus' promise, then, is a great comfort to those who mourn the consequences of their sin.

The Cause of S_____

Mourning exists because sin exists (Genesis 3):

1. The effects of the Fall
2. The consequences of the sins of ourselves and others
3. The ingrained habits found in societies and structures.

Guilt and shame do not fix the problem, but godly sorrow is a necessary part of healing.

For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, but worldly grief produces death.
- 2 Corinthians 7:10

While we must mourn in this lifetime, we do not mourn alone. Christ comforts us in our sorrows.

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice from the throne: , Look, God's dwelling is with humanity, and he will live with them. They will be his peoples, , and God himself will be with them and will be their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; grief, crying, and pain will be no more, because the previous things have passed away. - Revelation 21:1-4
