

A knight in full plate armor stands in a dark, misty field. The knight's armor is highly detailed, featuring a helmet with a visor, large pauldrons on the shoulders, and a breastplate with a central ridge. The knight's hands are clasped in front of him. The background is a dark, foggy landscape with faint silhouettes of trees or structures.

3.31.19 | Today

We are continuing our message series titled, This is War, where we are talking about Satan and the spiritual battles we are fighting. Today, we are specifically talking about the fact that Satan is referred to as “the ruler of this world.” What does that mean? Can he make us do things against our will? Let’s talk about it, because the question we are asking ourselves today is, who or what do we want to rule us?

THE RULER OF THIS WORLD

1 Chronicles 21:1-17 (p. 350; large print p. 412)

Three questions:

- Who is the ruler of this world?
- What is the ruler of this world?
- Who is being ruled in this world?

Jesus said, “The ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on Me, but I do as The Father has commanded Me.” (John 14:30)

JERUSALEM JOURNEY - Free, sent home with Faith Kids

Follow Jesus through the scenic streets of Jerusalem as he faithfully journeys toward the cross. Children and their families are encouraged to read a short devotion and Bible passage each of the 40 days of Lent as they journey with Jesus toward the cross and the empty tomb.
