GRACE-FULL PARENTING

WEEK TWO: 9/23

First time here?

Welcome, we're glad you chose to worship at Faith! If you have any questions this morning, please stop by the Info Desk in the center of the Lobby to speak with a Hospitality Team member. To learn more about what's happening at Faith - Oakville or to subscribe to our monthly Campus News, visit faithstl.org.

Music and the Bible are available in braille, and an ASL interpreter is available at 9:15 a.m. Sunday worship.

CONNECT

New to worship at Faith?

We'd like to connect with you! Gather by the Bookstore after any service today to talk with a pastor and staff. We'd love to answer any questions you have.

9.23.18 | Today

In week number two of the Instructions Not Included message series, Pastor Chris is talking about what it means to be a merciful and gracious parent. Does this mean that parents have to excuse everything their kids do? Does this mean there are no consequences for the children's actions? Before we answer that, let's start with a precursory question: Are you thinking you are the parent or the child?

1 John 3:1a, 4:9-10 (page 1022, large print page 1211)

You will struggle to be _____ - _____ if you are _____ - _____.

Many times we are more upset at what our kids' sins mean _____ than
_____.

Our _____ doesn't save us, and our _____ need not condemn us.

We are saved by _____ through
_____. (Ephesians 2:8)
