New to worship at Faith?

We'd like to connect with you at our Guest Connect today! Gather by the Bookstore immediately following each service to talk with a pastor and staff. We would love to answer any questions you have. We look forward to meeting you!

1.14.18 | Today

James' words summarize the focus of today's message: Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. (James 1:22) Beyond the challenge of reading the Bible is the challenge to apply it. How do we do this? May the Holy Spirit open our ears and hearts to hear from Jesus today. Be sure to tuck the included bookmark away in your Bible for future use.

APPLYING GOD'S WORD

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do. (James 1:22-25)
