2 Corinthians 5:14–15

<sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; <sup>15</sup> and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

1. Christ's love for us (5:14)

<sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died...

BRIDGEPOINT MISSIONS WEEK

Christ's love is a compulsive force in the life of believers, a dominating power that effectively eradicates choice... it leaves them no option but to live for God and Christ.

— Murray Harris

People prefer to run away from the truth because the truth is very tough. It demands that you change your behavior.

— Natan Sharansky

BRIDGEPOINT MISSIONS WEEK

Those who belong to Christ do not live for themselves. In societies given to self-promotion, self-fulfillment, and self-indulgence, Christians will stand out as distinctively different. They live only for Christ and give up their own rights for the good of others...

— David Garland

BRIDGEPOINT MISSIONS WEEK

Christ's death must change the way we live here and now on earth, not simply insure our entrance into God's eternal presence.

— David Garland
