The great thing that was lost in the Garden: Our intimate union and communion with God (Gen 3:8-13)

- The great promise: What was lost will be restored (Ez 37:27)
- There are hints and shadows previewing this reality throughout scripture (Neh 9:19; Ps 105:39; Jn 1:14)

This promise will be fully realized in Heaven, in the New Jerusalem (Rev 21:1-3)

- What was lost will not only be restored but surpassed. Heaven is Heaven because Jesus is there (Ps 27:4; Phil 1:21-23)
- In Heaven we will not only see Him, we will be with Him (1 Cor 13:12)

Every saint will see and enjoy Him. Our response will be worship (Heb 11:16; Rev 5:1-14)

“There will be glory beyond hyperbole. If the sun were ten thousand times brighter than it is, it could not so much as shadow out this glory. In the heavenly horizon we shall behold beauty in its first magnitude and highest elevation there. We shall see the King in His glory. All lights are but eclipses compared with this glorious vision.” – Thomas Watson
