

The Better Word

Hebrews 1:1-3

---

The Grace of God in Revelation

- The great wonder is that God spoke at all
- The great tragedy is that sin has made us deaf

The Manner and Mercy of Revelation

- God revealed Himself to His people at many times and in many ways
- In contrast with false prophets and mute idols
- Failure to listen pointed to the need for a better prophet

The Climax and Completeness of Revelation

- The completed work of the Son
- The eternal identity of the Son
- The ongoing activities of the Son

Application

- Reflect: On the grace you have received
- Rest: Looking to the perfections of Christ

For Life Group Discussion

Hebrews 1:1-3

---

1. Was their one key question, event, or person that God used to draw you to Himself? Explain.
2. Have you ever reflected on the fact that God is a speaking God? First in creation (Psalm 19:1-4; Rom 1:20) then by special revelation (Heb 1:1-2). Was He under obligation to speak? Why or why not?
3. God spoke to the nation of Israel through the prophets (Heb 1:1). How did they know if a prophet was from God? Read Deut 18:20-22. How can we apply that to people who claim to be prophets today? Can you think of contemporary examples?
4. Read Deut 18:15, 18. How did this prepare the people for the Messiah? See Jn 1:45 and Acts 3:17-26. Did this word from Moses anticipate the need for a better prophet? Why was it necessary?
5. Read Heb 1:2-3. Reflect on the completed work, eternal identity, and ongoing activities of the Son. What stands out as particularly glorious? How can these truths draw you into worship?
6. Our assignment was to reflect on the miracle of revelation and to rest in the person of the Son. What are some ways you can practically apply those this week?