Leading Our Children

We know that being a father is a high calling and serious responsibility with implications for all eternity. And by faith, we take that role seriously- just like Job did.

“His sons used to take turns holding feasts in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would send and have them purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, ‘Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.’ This was Job’s regular custom.” (Job 1:4,5)

1. Godly fathers also care deeply about the _____ welfare of their _____ children and regularly _____ for them, ask God to be _____ to them, _____ them, and keep them in the _____.
2. Godly fathers are as determined as Joshua to lead their children in a life of faith and _____. They do not go with the flow, parenting like _____ everyone else does, conforming to the lifestyles, values, and priorities _____ that are common in our culture. Their actions reflect Joshua’s conviction, “As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15)
3. Godly fathers don’t _____ the _____ teaching duties _____ to mom or the _____. (Ephesians 6:4)

David started early with his son Solomon, who said, “When I was a boy in my father’s house, still tender, and an only child of my mother, he taught me and said, “Lay hold of my words with all your heart; keep my commands and you will live. Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget my words or swerve from them. (Proverbs 4:3-5)

4. Godly fathers not only teach the _____ of _____ to their children, they _____ and _____ their children according to the _____ Word of God. (1 Timothy 3:4; Hebrews 12:7)
