

Senior Pastor ~ Norman Sullivan

“Lead” ~ February 20, 2022

Background Verses: Acts 2:38-48; Ephesians 4:11-16;

Colossians 3:16; Deuteronomy 6:4-9

The early church had a voracious _____ for God’s _____.

One simply cannot be a _____ and have no _____ for a knowledge of this truth.

The apostles’ teaching was designed for _____ disciples.

This “evangelism explosion” was the _____ of their _____, not the stated _____ of it.

Biblical preaching and teaching _____ in the church.

The apostles’ teaching _____ the _____.

Attention to detail to the apostles’ teaching by all the _____ of the church attributed to the _____ in the body of Christ.

The apostles’ teaching _____ their _____.

Genuine comprehension of the _____ leads to real _____.

The apostles’ teaching _____ their _____.

The apostles’ teaching _____ their _____.

The apostles’ preaching no doubt expounded Jesus’ words about _____ and _____ one another.

Their commitment to the apostles’ teaching _____ their _____.

The apostles’ teaching _____ their _____.

A _____ stays continually steadfast in the apostles’ teaching.

This commitment to the Word needs to be found _____ our _____.

Lead well at _____ before you lead at _____.

There is a _____ inside each of us.