

Senior Pastor ~ Norman Sullivan

“Worship at the Throne” ~ March 20, 2022

Background Verses: Revelation 4; Matthew 17:1-8; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; 2 Thessalonians 2:7; Daniel 7:9; Exodus 19:16-19; Ephesians 4:4; Isaiah 11:2

If we really want to know what’s going on in the world, then we need a different

_____.

The _____ contains all those who are “in Christ.”

There is a throne set up in the middle of heaven and _____ is _____ on it.

The course of _____ is controlled by the _____ God who is in full _____ of the course of humanity.

When things look like they are _____, or coming unglued; in all actuality things are finally coming _____.

God’s mercy and grace always precede His _____.

All the redeemed are clothed in the _____ of _____.

There is one _____, yet the seven lamps speak of the _____ of His functions.

The four living creatures focus their praise on three attributes of God: His _____, His omnipotence, and His _____.

It means that _____ is their posture; their every action is an expression of _____.

The creatures spoke of God’s _____, but the elders honored God for His _____.

_____ is the ascribing of _____ to God.

Revelation is an act of _____ that calls others into the act of _____.

The first vision doesn’t consist of _____, rather it is about _____.

Keeping believers immersed in _____ would keep before them “the truth of the gospel,” that is, “God in _____ rules and _____.”