The Body & Blood of Remembrance

Matthew 26:20-30

In Remembrance of Me

A still life painting of a communion table. In the center, a white cloth is draped over a wooden table. On the left, a silver chalice is partially visible. In the foreground, a round loaf of bread sits on the table. The background is a textured, abstract composition of warm colors like gold, brown, and purple, suggesting a church interior with light filtering through. The overall mood is solemn and reverent.

Main Point:

We remember the Bread and the Cup as the emblems of the New Covenant – His Body & Blood given for our Salvation!

In Remembrance of Me

Exodus 12 - Passover

1. We remember and partake of these Emblems.

I Corinthians 5:7

A still life photograph of a chalice and bread on a table, used as a background for the text. The chalice is on the left, and the bread is on the right. The lighting is warm and dramatic, with strong shadows and highlights. The background is dark and textured.

2. We Participate in Christ.

> I Corinthians 10:16

As we partake of communion – we remember, receive Him; give thanks, re-commit; and also celebrate our union/participation with Christ.

I Peter 1:18-19

We celebrate our union with Christ and each other, and we celebrate our eternal life in Him!

3. We Proclaim His Death, Resurrection and Return!

> I Corinthians 11:26

We proclaim corporately in this act of communion - Christ Crucified, raised again from the dead, and the hope of new life to a watching world, until His sure return!

Let us give thanks to the LORD!
Have you received Him? Do you need to re-commit yourself to Him? Let us receive, remember and celebrate!
