Hey everybody. Welcome back to the Christmas box journey of looking for the Messiah. Today is day 12, and today we learn that he will be the seed of David. Now, the Lord promised that the Messiah would be the perfect king who would rule forever according to what is good and right in God's eyes. We've already seen that, and as the Lord began to give kings to Israel, David, a man after God's own heart, a man from the tribe of Judah was chosen to be king over Israel. Though David was not the Messiah because he ultimately did what was good and right in his own eyes, he was a man of great faith. And the Lord chose to make a covenant with David. The covenant was the Lord's promise to King David that the great Messiah King would come from His line would come from David's line, it would be his seed, his son, and this son would rule forever on David's throne in Jerusalem over an everlasting kingdom. And so now the story, it's been looking for the seed of the woman and Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the one who's going to come from Judah. And now we're watching the line of David. The story keeps a close eye on David from here on out and his seed as it looks for the coming Messiah, the true king of Israel. And so today we learned that he will be the seed of David. Join us tomorrow as we continue to look for the Messiah.
