Hey everybody. Thank you so much for joining us on the Christmas Box journey of looking for the Messiah. Today is day eight, and today we learned that he will be the great priest of Israel. See Aaron, the brother of Moses and his seed, his descendants after him were appointed to serve as priests between the Lord and between Israel. A priest's job was to be the mediator, to be the go-between, to stand between the Lord and the people. And the priests were to teach the people God's word. They were to teach them what is good in God's eyes. And not only that, they were to pray for the people before God and offer sacrifices on behalf of themselves and for the people of Israel. However, just like the judges, as we learned yesterday, the priests of the Old Testament only did what was good and right in their own eyes, just like Adam did in the beginning. And so the story continues to look for the ultimate priest, the Messiah, who will do what is good in God's eyes, and who will finally mediate between the Lord and the people for, with the ultimate sacrifice himself, the Passover lamb, as we've already learned. And so today, we learned that he will be the great priest of Israel. Join us tomorrow as we continue to look for the Messiah.
