

who's your 1ONE?

Persistent for One: WEEK 5

1. What is one victory or change you have experience in your life through persistence?
2. Read Luke 15:1-10
 - A. Jesus was in the habit of hanging out with sinners, why is it that most Christians have few if any non-believing friends?
 - B. Where do you see God's persistent heart for the lost in these parables?
 - C. Are there any other places in scripture where you see God's persistent heart for sinners?
3. We become what we repeatedly do. What habits do you have that help you in becoming the person you want to be? What habits have you done in the past that had to be abandoned because of their negative effect on your life?
4. In "Surprise the World," Michael Frost offers 5 Habits that can help us live lives that are persistent after ONE. They are described by the acronym B.E.L.L.S.

(B)less others: serve them

(L)earn Jesus: His words, His ways, and His works

(E)at with them: practice hospitality

(S)ent: live sent – you are called to a mission for ONE.

(L)isten to the Holy Spirit

Which of these "habits" would come naturally to you, which would you find a challenge?
Which of these "habits" can you practice this week as you continue to love your ONE?

Final Thought

LOVING YOUR ONE = PERSISTENCE for ONE.
