Note from the pastor

Deuteronomy 30:19 I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: 20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

- In Deuteronomy 30:19–20, God places a staggering choice before His people: “I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life.”
- It’s one of the most direct invitations in all of Scripture. The Lord isn’t hiding His will or leaving us to guess. He is calling us—pleading with us—to choose the path that leads to life, joy, and fellowship with Him.
- Choosing life is not a one-time decision; it’s a daily posture of the heart. It means loving the Lord, obeying His voice, and clinging to Him when everything around us pulls in the opposite direction.
- God reminds Israel that He is their life and the length of their days. In other words, real life isn’t found in comfort, success, or self-reliance. It’s found in walking closely with the God who made us and redeemed us.
- Every day brings crossroads—moments where we choose faith or fear, obedience or convenience, surrender or self. God’s call still stands: choose life. Not the life the world advertises, but the life rooted in Christ, shaped by His Word, and sustained by His presence.
- Today, set your heart toward Him. Love Him. Listen to Him. Cling to Him. In choosing Him, you choose life.
