

eGroup Questions

January 19, 2020

---

Verse: 1 Timothy 4:4-5

PRAY

Begin your group study with an opening prayer. Acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit, who serves as a teacher as you gather.

REVIEW

What truth did you discover in the previous lesson? Did it transform how you live your life in any way? Even if it was small.

CONNECT

In this lesson, we are looking at what it means to understand the difference between good and bad things through the Bible and prayer. As a group, share your thoughts on the following questions.

Have you ever experienced a time when you thought something was good or even godly as a Christian, but found out later that it wasn't? What did you do after your discovery? How did you feel knowing that you were essentially doing something bad?

OBSERVE

Read your selected passage out loud as a group. While you read, take note of details, words, or phrases that jump off the page. Take a moment to share your findings with the group.

DISCUSS

After reading this week's scripture passage, did anything new stand out to you that you had not seen before? In your own words, what do you see as the central message of this passage?

Would you say that you are generally a thankful person, or does that take effort? Was there a time in your life or currently where you felt a deep sense of thankfulness?

If what God has created is meant to be enjoyed and seen as good, do you feel there are limitations? What are those limitations? How can we take pleasure in something given to us by God without it leading us into sin?

If the Bible and prayer are roadmaps that help us navigate what is right or wrong, how do you feel this works practically? What does it mean to have a Biblical foundation? What does it look like to bring all things into prayer?

This lesson is the last one in our mini-series on prayer. What are some views or ideas you have learned about prayer? How would you choose to apply these to your life?

MAIN IDEA

In one to three sentences, summarize your main take-away from this lesson. Share your thoughts with the group.

PRAY

Now that you have finished your study, take this opportunity to pray together as a group. Feel free to collect any prayer needs from the group members.