STAFF SEARCH UPDATES

Family/Children's Pastor—Remaining staff not part of the first interview met with our candidate this past week. The Family Life Committee is now working on a time for the candidate to come on a Sunday and participate in a morning worship experience. Please continue to be in prayer as we discern the next steps.

Lead Pastor—Brandon officially handed in his three month notice on the first of August. That means he will be with us through the month of October. There is some flexibility on this, however, should Brandon find a job that requires him to move earlier. Coordinating Committee is working on naming a Search Committee for the new lead pastor. M&O is working on an updated Job Description for the lead pastor. Please be praying for Brandon, his family, and for our church as we open this process.

Have a prayer request you would like to share so our church family can be praying for you? Would you like to be added to our prayer chain email group? Please send requests to info@wabashfriends.org.
