

Royalty Building Takes Family

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Rev 1:5-6 KJV

*“Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning! Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of the nobility, and your princes feast at the proper time, for strength, and not for drunkenness! Through sloth the roof sinks in, and through indolence the house leaks.” Ecclesiastes 10:16-18 ESV

*“Bread is made for laughter, and wine gladdens life, and money answers everything. Even in your thoughts, do not curse the king, nor in your bedroom curse the rich, for a bird of the air will carry your voice, or some winged creature tell the matter.” Ecclesiastes 10:19-20 ESV

It's difficult to build something Sustainable on a negative! The other half of the equation is how holy He is on your behalf.

That's why you repent from our sin and move on into What God created you to be.

When this is realized, is when identity changes.

*Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 2Cor 5:17

Applebees, Bomerange money, felt like a king,

Had a great dinner last night. 42 years of marriage: We eat at the place where kings eat as a daily routine.

*Under three things the earth trembles; under four it cannot bear up:
a slave when he becomes king, and a fool when he is filled with food;
(Proverbs 30:21)*

15, Then the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, 16, “When you serve as midwife to the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter, she shall live.” 17, But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. 18, So the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and let the male children live?” 19, The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.

20, " So God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and grew very strong. 21, And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. 22, Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, "Every son that is born to the Hebrews you shall cast into the Nile, but you shall let every daughter live."

(Exodus 1:15–22 ESV)

•He gave them Families (God is a generational God, The God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob)

1, Now a man from the house of Levi went and took as his wife a Levite woman. 2, The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. 3, When she could hide him no longer, she took for him a basket made of bulrushes and daubed it with bitumen and pitch. She put the child in it and placed it among the reeds by the river bank. 4, And his sister stood at a distance to know what would be done to him. 5, Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it. 6, When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby was crying. She took pity on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children." 7, Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" 8, And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the girl went and called the child's mother. 9, And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him. 10, When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, "Because," she said, "I drew him out of the water." (Exodus 2:1–10 ESV)

- This was a family dynasty:
- his Sister was his advocate, Miriam, Then Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambourines and dancing.
- (Exodus 15:20 ESV)
- The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. And she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Miriam their sister.
- (Numbers 26:59 ESV)
- Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, "Is there not Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Behold, he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.
- (Exodus 4:14 ESV)

One day, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and looked on their burdens, and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his people. 12, He looked this way and that, and seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. 13, When he went out the next day, behold, two Hebrews were struggling together. And he said to the man in the wrong, “Why do you strike your companion?” 14, He answered, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid, and thought, “Surely the thing is known.” 15, When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and stayed in the land of Midian. And he sat down by a well. (Exodus 2:11–15 ESV)

- God used fear to move Moses to be trained by a Priest..

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock. 17, The shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and saved them, and watered their flock. (Exodus 2:16–17 ESV)

19, They said, “An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and even drew water for us and watered the flock.” 20, He said to his daughters, “Then where is he? Why have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.” 21, And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. 22, She gave birth to a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.” (Exodus 2:19–22 ESV)

23 During those many days the king of Egypt died, and the people of Israel groaned because of their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God. 24, And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. 25, God saw the people of Israel—and God knew. (He knew the plan, 16-22) (Exodus 2:23–25 ESV)

1 Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. 2, And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed. (Exodus 3:1–2 ESV)

You will need your family to help you fulfill your calling even after your burning burn experience,
