Title: "Dealing with Difficult People"

Text: Proverbs 10:12

1. When our hearts are dominated by hatred for someone, what do they tend to do?
2. What are some of the ways we can stir up dissension?
3. When our hearts are dominated by love for someone, what do they tend to do?
4. What are some of the ways that love covers over all wrongs?
5. Peter applies this proverb to Christians: Read 1 Peter 4:8. Why is this so important in the Christian community?
6. What can we do to help us love, rather than hate, those who have wronged us? Consider Jesus' teaching in Luke 6:27-31 as you answer.
