Date: 6/1/14

Title: "Kids & Dads"

Text: Ephesians 6:1-4.

1. How do you see mutual submission (Eph. 5:21) being worked out in the parent/child relationship?
2. What reasons are given for obeying and honoring parents?
3. What does it mean for you (at your present stage in life) to honor your parents?
4. In what ways are children blessed when they obey and honor their parents?
5. What can we learn from Jesus in Luke 2:51 about how children should obey their earthly parents?
6. How can parents provoke their children to anger (exasperate them)?
7. How do parents bring up their children in "the discipline and instruction of the Lord"?
8. How does God, our Heavenly Father, discipline and instruct us as His children?
9. What can we learn from Deuteronomy 6:7 about how parents can instruct their children?
