

SLAYING GIANTS

GENEROSITY VS GREED

INTRODUCTION

We all know greed is a problem — we just think it's a problem for other people. Greed is sneaky like that. Don't let greed grab a hold of you. Learn to see greed for what it is, slay its hold on your life, and stay free from greed for good.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. ICEBREAKER: What is the most generous thing someone has done for you, or that you have witnessed in your life?
2. Why is greed something we don't really talk about? Why do you think most people would say they don't struggle with greed?
3. What adjustments can you make to move from a "lens of fear" (greed) to a "lens of faith" (generosity)?
4. How can we stop feeding greed in our lives?
5. Which seems to be the most difficult: seeing the giant of greed, slaying the giant of greed or making the giant of greed stay away?
6. What is something we as a group can do to show generosity? (within our church, community, or a family we know)
